Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less. in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufactures of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great imposition, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

—Hops will break out fresh next month.

—Muskets and uniforms have vanished from our streets.

—Ample religious facilities are offered to the pious to-day.

—Shooting galleries are in full blast, and billiards and bagatelle flourish.

—W. G. Hill Lodge holds a meeting to morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

—We hear that a big Democratic barbecue is soon to come off in Little River township.

—The excitement attendant upon fair week is over, and things are once more running in the old rut.

—Owing to the absence of Rev. Dr. Vaughan at the Synod, at Fayetteville, there will be no service at the Presbyterian church to-day.

—The Register of Deeds issued papers yesterday for two couples to make themselves miserable for the balance of their natural existence.

—Trade was better yesterday than it has been for a number of days past. Though the crowd in the city was much smaller than it had been for the past two or three days, our merchants reaped a much more satisfactory harvest.

—Mrs. Esther P. Hayes, of this city, appeared before our board of county examiners yesterday as an applicant for a certificate to teach in the common schools of the county. She stood an excellent examination and was granted a certificate of the first grade.

—The NEWS office is indebted to Mr. Nash, the celebrated poultry raiser of Chatham county, for a coop of game chickens. The rooster will be kept to crow lustily for Tilden, Vance and Reform, but the hens will have made themselves useful long before the day of election.

—An interesting wool-pulling took place yesterday afternoon, on Cabarrus street, between a couple of antique Anglo-African amazons. Enough wool flew to stuff a good sized mattress. One of the parties squealed and the fight ended without the intervention of the police.

—Eight thousand people were carried by the fair ground trains from Tuesday morning to Friday night. This does not include excursion trains on the Raleigh & Gaston and Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroads, only the travel between Hargett street station and the fair grounds.

—A diminutive pocket-book, worth probably about 6¼ cents, and containing ragged fractional currency to the amount of 10 cents, has been handed us for advertisement as found. These few lines are to inform the loser that he, or she, can recover the same by calling at this office and paying the sum of $1 for this advertisement.

—Go and see that your name is properly on the registration books. Remember that the books used in the municipal election will not be used in the coming election. The convention registration is the one that will be used, so go and see that you are properly registered. The Republicans have determined to resort to all sorts of quirks, turns and dodges.

Revenue Collections.

Last week revenue collections in this collection district amounted to $27,635.27. This is the collection for each day of the week:

Monday, $9,958.97; Tuesday, $144.25; Wednesday $789.40; Thursday $13 907 52; Friday $1,458.00; Saturday, $1,377.13. This makes the total above given. A right good weeks work.

Colored Democrats.

A letter received yesterday in this city states that in a certain village in this State there are nine colored men in a Tilden and Vance Club, and fifty others have given their names to the same club for membership.

THE STATE FAIR.

Last Day—Foot Races—General Results.

Yesterday the State Fair closed. But little was to be seen on the grounds save the bustle of employes of the society and owners of articles on exhibition hurrying to and fro in making preparations to decamp. It was in great contrast to the jam and throng of the day before. Those present seemed bent on anything but pleasure. Business was their object. No gorgeously arrayed marshals pranced over the field on cavorting and splendidly caparisoned horses. No graceful feminine forms were flitting through the grand stand. The only thing that enlivened the overhanging gloom was a series of foot races. There were matches both for the white and colored. The first race was one made up among the whites for a purse of five dollars. There were several entries, and among them several of our well-known citizens who do not wish their names to appear in print. There were two heats of half mile each, which were taken by the same party in 5¾ and 6½. The next race was indulged solely by Anglo-Africans for a purse of $2,50, half mile dash. These were the entries:

John Brown, Peter Austin, Alex. Terry, Edward Johnson, Lee Weaver, Ed. Austin, Tom Hinton and S. C. Kelly. Alex. Terry proved to have the speed and bottom of the crowd, and so took the prize in 5½. There were several impromptu walking and running matches made up for small purses, all of which served to dispel the general gloom and amuse the small crowd for awhile.

Packing up and settling up was the order of the day, as time wore on, at the general exhibition hall, and the offices of the Secretary and the Treasurer, and as far as we could learn everybody left well satisfied.

The preparation of the premium list is now in progress, and as soon as complete, the Executive Committee will examine the awards, hear patiently any requests that may be made, and then announce the results. It will be necessary to receive the funds due to the society from the various railroads for the coupons attached to their tickets, before action can be taken in regard to the payment of cash premiums. This requires some six or eight weeks for adjustment, or after they receive their monthly returns from station agents. We have deemed it best to inform the public in regard to this matter which has not heretofore been understood. Articles donated for special premiums are in hand, and will be at the disposal of the winners when so declared by the committee.

The gates are closed and the work is done. With such a hearty co-operation as we believe the citizens of Raleigh, her men of enterprise, and her fair women, are ready to give, we look next year for the great fair of North Carolina, as we have never seen it, with results of incalculable value to all our interests. Let us all stand by an institution which the press of our own State, and of others, declares reflects honor upon the city of Raleigh.

Capt. C. B. Denson.

The stringency of money, and the progress of the Centennial, induced the opinion that our State Fair would be a failure. But these gloomy predictions were, we are glad to be able to say, false. The fair, making reasonable allowances, was all that its most sanguine friends hoped for, and this success was in great part due to the energy and untiring zeal of the Secretary, Capt. C. B. Denson. In truth he is the right man in the right place. He has accomplished what few men could have done, and the agriculturists of the State owe him a debt of gratitude for a persistent and successful endeavor to further their interests. Captain Denson has been untiring in the discharge of his duty to the Agricultural Society, and to him belongs the credit of sweeping away the obstacles in the way of the success of our State Fair. Added to a splendid executive ability, Captain Denson has an intimate knowledge of most of the practical pursuits of life, especially is this so in regard to agriculture. A happy blending of theoretical knowledge with an extended practical experience places him in the rank of an adept, and withal he is a polished, genial gentleman. We congratulate the society upon the re-election of Captain Denson to the secretaryship. No man more suitable, or acceptable to the public, could have been chosen.

He Bought the Bull.

We learn that Geo. T. Stronach purchased the magnificent Alderney bull which was sent from Alamance county to the fair. Mr. Stronach is an enterprising farmer and delights in fine stock. In the poultry line he is a connoisseur of the first water, having collected all of the best and rarest species.

Peace Institute.

The interesting entertainment at Peace Institute, Thursday, deserves a more extended notice than we have been able to give it, and we proceed at once to specify those parts which were particularly good. The exercises commenced with the "Greeting Song" and March—sung and played with the most exquisite skill, to which the band of beautiful young ladies responded in a well-drilled step. The visitors were delighted with this in the beginning. Next came a grand solo, "Printemps d'Amour," (Gottschalk)—performed by Miss Fannie Arrington. No artiste or lover of good music could fail to appreciate this well executed and difficult piece, showing the young lady to be mistress of the piano, under the efficient instruction of Prof. Bauman.

The audience was next surprised with the tableaux—"Night and Morning"—most refined and beautiful display, consisting of two figures, one draped in white reclining on a sofa, the other (Night) in black, with silver stars, lifting the rosy veil of morning. All were greatly impressed with the beauty of this scene. The next, a song, "Hush," which being entirely new, was enjoyed greatly as sung by Miss Allie Hannah, one of its chief attracions being the perfect enunciation of the fair songstress.

The audience was then invited to witness the lovely Tableaux, "Abou Ben Adhem," in two acts. These scenes we scarcely dare describe. The Angel would have been perfect even without wings, and the grave Turk was a noble specimen of that stern nation. This was followed by one of "Millard's" charming songs, "When the flowing tide comes in," sung by Miss E. Hemphill, and was admirably selected by Prof. Bauman, as one that could not fail to delight an appreciative audience. Miss Hemphill bids fair to do great credit to her instructor.

And now comes a Tableaux of great beauty, "The Ten Virgins," in three acts. This parable was chanted behind the scenes by Mrs. Bauman, Mrs. Geo. Jordan and Prof. Bauman. The words were audible in the remotest part of the room. These scenes were calculated to awaken feelings both tender and solemn, and the acting of the young ladies was perfect.

Just here let us say that due praise should be awarded Miss Fowler who was the moving spirit in it all.

One of our standard songs, "Schubert's Serenade," was next rendered in most fascinating style by Miss Mary Merrimon. This young lady has a superb voice, and one which entitles her to distinction The finale—Magic Music, a tableaux of great variety. From the ease with which all the domestic branches of education were performed, we judge that the art of sweeping, dusting, etc., are not neglected in this popular institution of learning. We will be pardoned for taking in the whole programme, contrary to our first intention, as it was difficult to discriminate where all were so good.

We know that the young gentlemen of the Bingham School, for whose benefit this entertainment was specially intended, took away with them lasting impressions of this pleasurable evening.

Fugitive Surrendered.

Yesterday Governor Brogden issued an order for the delivery of B. J. Hughes, white, a fugitive from justice from Maryland, to the authorities of that State under a requisition from Governor Carroll. Hughes stands charged with the murder of R. S. Hook, of Calvert county, Maryland, September 13th, also with cutting the throat, not fatally, however, of another citizen of that county. He was arrested about ten days ago at Edenton, this State, and held for the coming of the above mentioned requisition. Hughes' occupation is that of of a traveling showman and he is well known in portions of Virginia and Eastern North Carolina. He has passed under the names of Hughes, St. Leon and St. Leno, and is said to be a desperate character. A reward of $100 was offered by the Maryland authorities for his capture. Mr. Solomon Freeberger, a detective from Baltimore, brought the official papers to Governor Brogden, and will carry Hughes back to Calvert county, to undergo his trial.

The Grangers.

The Executive Committee of the State Grange adjourned yesterday at 12 m., after a session of nearly two days. Business of importance was transacted, but it was of a character that cannot be made public, having reference to the secret workings of the order. Worthy Master Mills, of Cabarrus county; Secretary G. W. Lawrence, of Wilson, Azariah Graves, of Caswell, and A. T. Mial, of Wake, were present, being a full meeting of the committee. We trust that the result of their deliberations will redound to the good of the order.

Nobody to Hear Him.

One Ball, a peripatetic Radical orator had appointments at Cameron and Carthage, Moore county, Thursday and Friday last. He put in an appearance at Cameron on the day appointed, but there was no one to hear. This so disappointed the Hayes and Wheeler apostle that he did not attempt to fill the Carthage appointment, but turned tail for Jonesboro. Old Moore is said to be ablaze for Tilden and Vance. Our whole ticket, State and county, will be triumphantly elected. Those who know the county, say that Cannaday, the carpet-bag candidate for Congress, will run a long ways behind the Republican State ticket.—The New Englander does not seem to have succeeded in working himself into the good graces of the Moore county people, notwithstanding his persistent bushwhacking in that section. The most prominent Republicans in the county have given him the cold shoulder right and left. Young, Cannaday and Lindsay stand about as much chance of election in the 1st, 3d and 4th districts as Peter Cooper does of being elected President of the United States.

Employment of Colored Democrats.

We are glad to learn that the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club have appointed R. W. Best, Esq., their agent to secure employment for colored Democrats. This is as it should be. There are a number of intelligent colored men in our midst who know and feel that it is their interest to support the policy of the Democratic party, but are deterred from following the bent of their convictions by the intimidation brought to bear by their own color, instigated by the white leaders of that party. Let it be known that colored Democrats will be protected in every way, and our word for it, many who have been deterred by actual fear will come out at once on the side of honesty and good government. There is hardly an intelligent negro in the county who does not really believe that his interest is identical with that of the white man, and that way he will go if his fears of material harm are done away with. This is an excellent move, and we hope that those who have it in charge will see that no deserving colored Democrat lacks for proper encouragement.

Court Adjourned.

Yesterday the informal term of our Superior Court came to an end. Judge Watts did not come to time as he promised to do before the adjournment for the fair. The clerk called over the docket and judgement nisi was taken against those failing to answer.

To mothers whose children are weeping—Sweet and balmy slumber secured for the little ones, and coughs and colds rapidly banished by the use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Send your books, phamphlets, &c., to the NEWS bindery to be bound.

The Meeting At Cary.

A very large crowd attended the discussion between the county candidates at Cary yesterday.—George H. Snow, the Democratic candidate for the Senate, led off in an excellent speech of an hour. He opened with a gallant charge and completely routed the enemy, "Honest" Bob Wynne. He showed the incalculable benefit to be derived from the adoption of the Constitutional Amendments, and spoke of the outrages perpetrated upon the poor white people of Jones county. Mr. Snow then charged S. D. Harrison, Republican candidate for county treasurer, with dealing in county orders which he knew to be fraudulent.

Mr. Snow concluded a scathing arraignment of the Republican party by an eloquent appeal to the good sense of his hearers to use their endeavors to do away with the bitter passions of the past; that to secure the future prosperity of the country the dissensions of the past must be buried forever, and labor and capital go hand in hand to build up our waste places. In alluding to his competitor, "Honest" Bob Wynne, Mr. Snow distinctly charged that Wynne received that celebrated gold watch from Tim Lee for the performance of a public duty, i. e. going to Wilmington to receive a signature to Tim Lee's official bond as sheriff, which was an official act. This and other serious charges of a public character were not replied to by Mr. Wynne. Messrs Whitley, Olive, Page, J. W. Jones, David Lewis and A. G. Jones made excellent speeches and entirely demolished the attempted arguments of their Republican opponents, Messrs Wynne, Purnell and J. E Bledsoe.

H. S. Keith, the irrepressible red Republican of this city, announced himself as an independent candidate for a seat in the lower House of the Legislature.

Good Templars.

Theo. N. Ramsey, G. W. C. T. lectured at Poplar Springs, Franklin county, yesterday, and organized Olive Branch Lodge with the following officers:

W. C. T.—D. A. Hopkins.
P. W. V. T.—Miss Mollie A. Fowler.
W. V. T.—Miss Mary Cheevert.
W. C.—Miss Sarah J. Williams.
W. S.—Mrs. Mary A. Harris.
W. T.—Mrs. Helen C. Hopkins.
W. F. S.—W. M. Carter.
W. M.—Henry Etheredge.
W. I. G.—Wm. Henry Carter.
W. O. G.—W. D. Ellen.

Mayor's Court.

As a result of the fair the Mayor yesterday had a full docket of drunks. Out of the goodness of his heart his Honor was gentle with delinquents. All of them were dismissed with the caution that fair week was over, and that further license in this direction would not be tolerated. In compliance with an urgent request we make this general notice of the proceedings of the tribunal, withholding the names of those who came before it.

Justice Magnin's Court.

Yesterday afternoon Justice of the Peace Magnin disposed of the following cases: State vs. Policeman W. M. Carter, for the false arrest of Charles Thompson, a white boy aged seven years. Carter was bound over to the next term of our Superior Court in a bond of $100.

William Alston, colored, was arraigned for the heinous crime of beating his wife. The charge was proved, but judgment was suspended on the promise of William to treat his gentle help-meet with gentleness and consideration in the future.

Personal.

Col. Thomas Ruffin, of Hillsboro, was in the city yesterday.

Col. T. M. Holt returned to his home in Alamance county yesterday.

Maj. A M. Lewis, of this city, will meet Q. H. Dockery, one of the Republican electors for the State at large, in public discussion at Fayetteville next Friday. "My son Oliver" is good for a skinning.

Emaciation a Remediable Defect.

Leanness not only detracts from personal comeliness, but is an index that the blood is deficient in nutritive properties. To remedy emaciation, enrich and purify the blood, which will then develop healthy flesh. This object is most readily attained through the agency of the great blood fertilizer and depurant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which enables the stomach to extract from the food taken into it ample nourishment for the system, removes all obstacles to complete digestion and assimilation, and by stimulating the kidneys to vigorous action, invites those organs to strain from the vital fluid in its passage through them impurities which would otherwise impair its flesh creating qualities. Not only do the bitters promote the development of solid fiber, but they also increase muscular power and elasticity, overcome nervousness, banish mental depression, and protect the system against disease.

Neuralgia Specific will cure "Sick Headache." Let those who suffer try it.

Mrs. Fanny Dunlap, Friendsville, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that less than one bottle of your Neuralgia Specific cured me of neuralgia, with which I suffered a great deal for some long time I also suffered with severe attacks of sick headache. It cured that also; so that I do not have it at all. I am sure it is one of the patent medicines that is all it claims to be.

Iron in the blood. Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator enriches the Blood, aids Digestion, cures Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Debility, Chills, Fever, Ague, and Female Complaints.

NATIONAL taxes do not go down. Yet, all the West is a great railroad Cemetery. All the East is a tomb of sunken fortunes, the rich dragging down the poor. The national debt is $2,000,000,000. The municipal debt is $1,800,000,000. The railroad debt is $4,000,000,000. Our total indebtedness is ten billions. Our interest charges are $600,000,900, or two-thirds of the total aggregate of our foreign trades. Yet taxes do not go down, and Government expenditures are as extravagant as ever.

WAR ON THE STATES.

The South Carolina programme, says the St. Louis Times, has assumed definite shape at last and the administration promptly rallies to the support of Governor Chamberlain in his dastardly scheme for re-election.

It was hoped that better counsels would prevail and that the voice of leading Republicans, who assert that no emergency has arisen to warrant Federal intervention, would obtain precedence at Washington over the incendiary appeals of a faithless and frightened executive; but in this the people are disappointed and the country experiences a fresh disgrace. Were Governor Chamberlain the honest and courageous official that the character of the times demands, there is no question that difficulties which he, for purely partizan purposes, pretends exist in South Carolina might readily be dealt with and overcome by a prompt exercise of his magisterial authority, and the rest of the country would scarcely hear of it. This, however, would not accomplish the point in view. This would be too easy, and sensible, and commonplace solution of the problem. It might not advance the Governor's political interests as he hopes to advance them by a conspiracy against the peace and dignity and good order of his State. It would not answer so effective an object in solidifying Republican prejudices and rousing to fever-heat again the old-time sectional resentments of the North. It would fail of its intended influence on the coming elections, were the question not amplified into a factitious national importance. Hence is presented the extraordinary spectacle of a grave Cabinet meeting sitting in judgement over the destinies of a sovereign State that has already been crushed almost out of resemblance to Statehood, and President fulminating a belligerent proclamation against some mythical enemy, and the Secretary of War directing the General of the Army to quarter all the available troops at his disposal upon the inhabitants of a helpless commonwealth, whose only crime is an instinctive and resolute determination to rid themselves of Radical misgovernment.

It is the desperate and abandoned resort of a party that will hesitate at no violation of the Constitution and no outrage upon the rights of the citizen to maintain the precarious tenure of its power. Surely the higher intelligence and better impulses of the American people must revolt at this coming exhibition of partisan depravity, and unless all sense of public honor and justice and conscience be lost, it will resct upon the conspirators with overwhelming weight at the free ballot boxes of the North.

TRUTH OF THE BROWN MURDER.

We call attention to the following card of Mr. M. F. Caudill, in regard to the hanging of certain persons in Alleghany and Wilkes counties during the war. It shows conclusively that not only did Gov. Vance have nothing to do with the matter but that in fact it was planned and conducted by a deserter from the army. The men were hung by persons whose families had been robbed or outraged; and solely on that account. Dr. Jas. T. Leach, than whom no more consistent and staunch Union man has ever lived in North Carolina, it will be seen, vouches for the good character and unquestioned veracity of Mr. Caudill. We trust that Judge Settle will hereafter cease to charge Gov. Vance with any responsibility for this occurrence, now that he knows the truth concerning the matter:

"This is to certify that I, M. F. Caudill was living in Alleghany county about 12 miles from George Brown's residence at the time he was arrested as charged by Judge Settle. That I am well acquainted with all the facts of the case. Said Brown was arrested by Nathaniel Price of Ashe county, George Petty of Georgia and other citizens for harboring and finding a band of organized robbers. Price was a good citizen before the war and a good soldier in the war. But when he heard how the robbers were pillaging the people and outraging the women (his own sister was reported one of their victums,) failing to get a furlough, he deserted and came home to take arms in defence of his own family. The 17 men were hung by Petty and his men by Price's orders and were a portion of the robber band: among them was old John Brown aged about 65 years, who was of the band and before the war a noted thief.

Neither Price, Petty nor any of the men engaged with them were acting as militia of the State.

M. F. CAUDILL.

Oct. 20th 1876.

J. T. LEACH, Jr. Test.

I am personally acquainted with M. T. Candill. He has been regarded as a gentleman of undoubted veracity in the community in which he lives.

J. T. LEACH.

PRESIDENT OF THE STATE AGCULTURAL SOCIETY.

The re-election of Col. Thomas M. Holt to the position which he has filled with such signal ability for the past few years, was well deserved by him, and will prove highly gratifying to his many friends throughout the country.

Col. Holt has been untiring in his devotion to the interests of the Society over which he has provided so faithfully; and its success in the face of many difficulties is due in great measure to the work he has done for it, and the sacrifices he has made.

We hope that in the future the citizens generally who wish to see North Carolina's interests advanced will hold up the hands of the President, Secretary and Executive Committee in their efforts to have creditable exhibitions. Nothing but good can come of it.

THE duty of Registration is one that no citizen should neglect.

THE official majority of Barnes, Republican, for Secretary of State, in Ohio, is set down at 6,692. Four counties are yet to be heard from. The figures will not be materially changed by the returns from these counties. Hayes' majority last year was 5 544. So, his augmented majority is represented by the figures 1,148. The Republicans boasted the State would give 30,000 majority for Barnes. What a fall is this! Contrast this infinitesimal increase with the magnificent Democratic majority in Hendrick's State. Gov. Hendrick's majority in 1872 was 1,148. William's majority in 1876 is 5,119—an increase of 3,971; or more than three times the proportionate increase. This showing indicates the direction in which the tide of popular opinion has set. We are satisfied, and look forward with the utmost complacency to the day of conflict, confident that the God of Right will be with us.

EVERY farmer should vote for the Amendments, and keep the penitentiary convicts at work on our public roads. By their aid railroads and turnpikes can be built in every part of the State. One of the Amendments provides for this. Every farmer in the State is interested in having good roads.

GOV. HOLDEN'S card fills seven columns of closely printed matter. When we have finished reading it, we will answer it. This being the Sabbath, we will not direct the minds of our readers to so unchristian a subject as the record of William W. Holden.

GENERAL LEACH has been invited to speak in South Carolina, and has accepted. Appointments have been made for him at Rock Hill, Chester, Yorkville, and other points. General Leach is a catholic spirited man, and broad enough to advocate our cause in two States.

ONE by one the crowing roosters of the Republican newspapers have dropped their tails, and sneaked off since the Republicans increased their vote in Hayes' own State only 1,148, while the Democrats in Ohio increased theirs 3,971—or three times as much.

GOV. VANCE spoke at Kinston yesterday. The joint discussions have ceased. The competitors for the Gubernatorial chair, separated at Swift Creek village, Carteret county, on Friday, Judge Settle taking the left, and Gov. Vance the right.

REGISTER your name, and vote for Reform and the Constitutional Amendments.

STATE CANVASS.

The Democrats are sanguine of carrying Surry county by 500 majority.

The Charlotte Observer of Friday learns that Billy Smith has been up in Burke county travelling around alone, occasionally making speeches in the backwoods and scattering money most lavishly. He left Statesville Wednesday in a private conveyance for a trip through Wilkes and perhaps other counties. It is understood that he is acting pay master for both of these districts.

Electors meet at their respective State capitols on the first Wednesday of December of the year in which they were elected, vote by ballot for President and Vice President, and transmit a record of their votes to the President of the United States Senate. An elector could vote contrary to the wishes of those who elected him, but such an instance has never been known.

The Washington Echo in speaking of the Congressional contest in the 1st district says: Our advices from the parts of the District canvassed by Major Yeates and Mac Lindsey continue to be of a very encouraging character, and argue a glorious success at the polls. To doubt the election of Yeates would be to insult the intelligence, the virtue and honesty of the people."

The Columbia S. C. Register says: "Hon. J. M. Leach, Democratic candidate for Elector at Large in North Carolina, and one of the most effective speakers in the South has consented to deliver a few speeches in this State between this time and the election. The following appointments have been made for him by the State Democratic Executive Committee: Rock Hill, October 24; Yorkville October 25; Chester, October 26; Newberry, October 28; Greenville, October 31; Spartanburg, November 2.

A grand torchlight procession will take place in Charlotte about the first of next week to celebrate the great Democratic victory in the West. A large number of speakers from this State and South Carolina have been invited to be present. Ben Hill, the orator of Georgia has also been urged to honor us with his presence. All the clubs of Mecklenburg and the adjoining counties in this section, and our neighboring organizations in South Carolina have invitations extended them and will no doubt join in the procession. The streets and private houses will be appropriately illuminated.

All of the executors of the will of E. B. Ward, the Detroit (Mich.) millionaire have resigned, it is understood, because they found the management of the estate much more difficult than they had anticipated.

A Day of Fasting Humiliation and Prayer.

ROOMS STATE DEM. EX. COM.,
COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 4, '76.

Several communications have been received by this committee from different quarters of the State asking that, at an early date, a day be fixed, and that all citizens be invited to dedicate that day to fasting humiliation and prayer. The committee has no official authority to make such a call, and feels that under ordinary circumstances its propriety as relating to the triumph of a party in a political contest might be questioned. But the present is no party contest, nor do we strive for personal gain or office or honor. Either we are laboring for the moral and material advantage of the whole people or our protestations are all false.

This being our firm conviction, we venture to bring our case before the Tribunal of Almighty Justice and invoke divine aid in behalf of our afflicted State and its people; therefore, our fellow-citizens are earnestly and respectfully invited to set apart Thursday, the 26th day of the present month, as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer. It is requested that all places of business be closed and labor suspended, that all may assemble at the several places of divine worship; and the ministers of the gospel are solicited to open the churches for service on that day and lead us in the prayer unto Almighty God that justice, peace and prosperity, mercy and truth, with fellowship and good feeling to all men may come back and prevail among our long suffering and much disturbed people,

In reverence and with humility.

A. C. HASKELL,
Chairman State Democratic Ex. Com.

Governor Chamberlain.

[New York Herald.]

The attempt now making in South Carolina by the federal administration to re-elect Governor Chamberlain by intimidation and coercion of the voters of the State is so dangerous as an example for the future, as well as of such pernicious effect upon the peace and welfare of the State and of the colored people, who are there, as in Louisianna and Mississippi, made the football of unscrupulous political gamblers, that it ought to be understood by the Northern people. It is not safe to vote for a party whose leaders not only countenance but command such a dangerous and unconstitutional interference by the party in power to perpetuate its power and elect its favorites.

It is commonly said that South Carolina would certainly show a Republican majority, because it has a majority of colored voters, and that, consequently, the Democrats cannot expect to elect General Hampton without intimidation of voters. This is a fundamental error. The truth is that after a long course of corruption that has happened to the Republican party in South Carolina which happened to the city Democratic party here. It has split. Governor Chamberlain is at the head of one fragment of his party; the other fragment is strongly opposed to him and supports General Hampton.—This anti-Chamberlain wing has in it many honest and very influential Republicans, who are using all their power and influence to defeat Gov. Chamberlain. They have, in fact, persuaded a considerable part of the colored population to oppose Chamberlain, whose defeat, on a fair vote, is very probable.

In this emergency Chamberlain raises the cry of lawlessness and the Northern Republican leaders at once persuade the President and his convenient Attorney General to send down troops and begin a general system of arrests. Why? For what purpose? To any one who knows the Southern colored voter the motive is clear. Mr. Chamberlain knows that the negroes, ignorant, easily led by a show of power, and devoted to the name of General Grant, will see in this ready use of federal troops in favor of Chamberlain only an indication that he is the President's favorite, and that their duty to General Grant is, in spite of all arguments, to support Chamberlain. Even if he were a most fit and proper person to be re elected this unscrupulous use of the federal power for his own ends ought to procure his defeat, and would in any community where the majority of voters possessed average intelligence.

There are at this moment three parties in South Carolina—one supporting Tilden and Hampton, one supporting Hayes and Chamberlain, and a third supporting Hayes and Hampton. Chamberlain's object in using troops and making arrests by federal deputy marshals is to disperse the last named party and drive the colored voters now in it back to his support. He is, in fact, intimidating voters on a large scale by his use of federal troops. That is the plain truth about South Carolina, and any Northern citizen can see that to reinstate the republicans in power for four years when such is their course toward the South is to hand the country over for four years more to a very unscrupulous and dangerous policy and to men whom such a success will lead to extreme measures, sure to cause prolonged civil disorders in a large part of the Union, and pregnate with still greater dangers for 1880.

Grant's Incendiary Proclamation.

[N. Y. World.]

It is to be hoped, and we are glad to believe that it is to be expected, that the citizens of South Carolina who have borne themselves so patiently and so bravely under the atrocious wrongs and injuries heaped upon them by their local oppressors, will not fail in their duty to themselves and to their country now. The monstrous proclamation issued to-day by President Grant and the order accompanying it, which practically declares war against a State at peace within the Union, is a blow aimed, directly at the people of South Carolina struggling to emancipate themselves from a despotism of rogues and ruffians. But it is a blow aimed at the people of the whole country who are on the point of making all such usurpations and outrages at once and forever impossible by driving from place and power the unscrupulous and lawless Administration by favor and in aid of which they have been planned and perpetrated. The proclamation of President Grant and the order of his Secretary at War give plain warning to thoughtful and conservative men of all parties throughout the North and West that nothing whatever, neither the lives and liberties of American citizens, nor the principles of the Constitution, nor the explicit law of the land, nor the decisions of the great tribunal which stands between all the interests of American society and a worse than South American anarchy, will be for one moment weighed in the balance by the men who rule this country to-day against the perpetuation of their power. It is to all intents and purposes, and in the strictest meaning of the phrase, an incendiary proclamation. It is an attack upon the credit of the nation and an open announcement to the world of the failure of our institutions. To meet and repel this attack is the instant duty of every good citizen in every State of the Union; and the way to this duty lies open peacefully before every good citizen to-day.

There is no need of words in such a case. Words will come indeed, hot and strong, to the lips of all freemen who know their rights and understand the tenure and conditions by which alone they hold them. But the true, final and overwhelming answer to this brazen defiance of liberty and of the law must be given at the polls on the seventh day of November next, and to this end it behooves every citizen of New York who reads this proclamation this morning to see to it that his name is registered duly and exactly on the voting lists of the metropolis before the sun goes down to-night. Let the citizens of South Carolina possess their souls yet a little while in patience, we repeat, and the uprising of the North will bring to them and to all the land ere a month has passed such a deliverance as the sword never yet wrought out for any people, and upon their enemies and the enemies of Republican freedom such a chastisement as the sword never yet inflicted.

A Candidate at Last.

[Hillsboro Recorder.]

By virtue of a meeting held at Bowling's Mill on the 27th ult. (?) Josiah Turner is out as a candidate for the Senate against Maj. Graham. In the letter of Mr. Turner to Mr. Bowling—we beg pardon—in the letter from Mr. Bowling to Mr. Turner, informing him of his nomination, we find this expression: "The men composing the meeting not one of them belonged to the Republican party. They are true party men who are determined to stand by the resolutions passed at the county convention which nominated Maj. John W. Graham for the Senate."

We have been furnished with the following list of those who composed the meeting. It is on the authority of the Secretary Mr. R. J. Tilley.

They are, William Bowling, John Bowling, the miller, Cad Cothran, who lives on Bowling's land; Mr. ——Williford, who works in Bowling's shop; Feeling Garrad, a Republican; Dick Crabtree, who has no objection to Major Graham; Will Kearsy, a negro; Green Mack, ditto; John Cannady, color and politics not stated. William Bowling signed his own name, and the Secretary signed for the rest, as they could not write.

The Secretary says Mr. Bowling did not write the letter to Mr. Turner, and adds that there was no expectation the proceedings would be published. The Secretary had no sympathy with Mr. Turner and only officiated as a matter of accommodation to his less experienced neighbors.

And this is the meeting that gives authority to override the decision of the people of the whole county solemnly made and ratified in May last.

The Prospects.

It having been proven beyond doubt that Mr. Hayes, the Republican candidate for President, is a member of a secret political society known as the "American Alliance," it is not likely he will receive much support in November from foreign-born citizens or members of the Catholic Church. The "American Alliance" is a new name for the old Know-Nothing organization, and was instituted for the purpose of proscribing foreigners and Catholics. Although Ohio, where Hayes lives and of which State he is now Governor, went for the Republicans on Tuesday last by a small majority, we confidently expect that State to go for Tilden in November.

The prospect is indeed cheering for the success of the Democratic candidates not only in Indiana, (which is now sure for Tilden,) but also in Ohio, Illinois and other large Western States.

The days of Radicalism, Negroism, Stealingism, and all other combinations against the peace and welfare of the honest people of the country, are numbered, and the end will be reached on the 7th day of November.

The prospect for a return of prosperity and peace, and the restoration of confidence in business affairs, is very good. Let Democrats take fresh courage and press forward for a grand and glorious victory.

With Vance as Governor of North Carolina, and Tilden President of the United States, everybody will feel better and be happier and more prosperous. Better days are surely coming.—Charlotte Democrat.

The Contest So Far.

Georgia, in 1872, gave 9,000 for Greeley; at the election on October 3d, she gave 50,000 majority for the Democratic ticket. Colorado being still in doubt, this makes the total Democratic gains in the State elections so far held, amount to the enormous number of 150,000 votes.

LEGAL NOTICES.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the power and authority contained in that certain deed of trust, bearing date the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy, and made by and between the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway Company of the one part, and R. A. Lancaster, W. K. Easley and Alfred Austell of the other part, and in compliance with the directions in that behalf contained in the decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, made at October Term, 1875, in a certain suit in equity therein pending, in which Skipwith Wilmer and Augustus Richard are complaints, and the Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway Company and others are defendants (and in and by which decree the undersigned John H. Fisher was appointed a trustee under the said deed of trust in the place of the said W. K. Easley, who was deceased, and with all the rights, powers and authority under the said deed of trust which were possessed by the said W. K. Easley in his lifetime), and in compliance also with the decrees of the Circuit Courts of the United States for the District of South Carolina and of the Western District of North Carolina, confirming the said decree made by the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia; We, the undersigned, will on the fifth day of December next, between the legal hours of sale, to wit, the o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. on that day, in front of the county Court House of Fulton county, in the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, sell at public auction, the entire railway of the said The Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway Company, extending from the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, to the city of Charlotte in the State of North Carolina, together with all its franchises, lands, buildings, machinery, rolling-stock, materials, and other property, real and personal, wherever situated and in whatsoever manner held, and whether owned and held by the said company at the time of the date of the said deed of trust, or thereafter acquired.

The terms of such sale shall be as follows:

1st. The premises will be sold in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash.

2d. Ten per cent. of the purchase money of the said premises will be required to be paid to the undersigned trustees at the time and place of sale and immediately after the premises shall be struck down, and the purchaser will be required at the same time to sign a memorandum of his purchase.

3d. The residue of such purchase money will be required to be paid to the said trustees at the office of John H. Fisher, as receiver of the said railway, in the city of Atlanta, on or before the twenty-sixth day of December next, when and where the deed of the undersigned, for the said premises will be ready for delivery.

4th. The buildings will be kept open after the premises shall be struck down, and in case any purchaser shall fail to comply with any of the terms of sale, the premises struck down to him will be again put up for sale upon the same terms of sale Provided, however, that if the holders of any of the four thousand two hundred and forty-eight bonds, secured by the said deed of trust, should, at the sale become the purchasers of the said premises, it shall not be necessary for them to pay the purchase money therefor, so far as concerns the proportion thereof, which, as such bondholders, they would be entitled to receive if the net amount of such purchase money were distributed pro rata equally among all of the holders of the said four thousand two hundred and forty eight bonds; but, that in such case, the bonds held by them, with the coupons annexed thereto, shall be brought into the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, and the sale to them shall be reported to the said court by the undersigned, and a conveyance by them to such bondholders will be withheld until the said Court shall give directions in relation to the disposition to be made of the proceeds of such sale.

THE NORTH CAROLINA FARMER.

J. H ENNISS:

Dear Sir—I have been a practical farmer for forty years, and during that time have taken the best agricultural journals of the day, and I undertake to say that there is more valuable practical information to our farmers in the first and second numbers of the "North Carolina Farmer," than in any dozen copies of the agricultural papers I have taken, and I do most earnestly recommend it to every farmer in our State, as the paper for him, above all others.

PETER E. HINES,

Hope of Future Negotiations--Turkey About to Treat with Russia.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A Paris correspondent of the Times intimates the probability of Turkey throwing overboard the protection of the powers and negotiating directly with Russia Turkish statesmen think they can save Bulgaria by granting the liberty of the Bosphorous to Russia. It is true that Turkey is bound by the treaty of 1856 to which the freedom of the Bosphorus is contrary, but the powerlessness of Europe is driving Turkey into negotiations with her bitterest enemy, and the Porte may break the treaty in despair.

The man-of-war 'Shah", twenty-six guns, the swiftest vessel in the English navy, has been ordered to Besika.

A dispatch from the Reuter telegram company from Paris says: "It is stated here that England has replied to Russia that as she has already supported the six months armistice she cannot now recommend the six weeks one, but she will not oppose it. No power appearing willing to take the initiative, the question rests between Turkey and Russia. A solution can thus only be looked for at Constantinople. Diplomatic circles here still hope for a pacific settlement."

FROM WASHINGTON.

Sitting Bull Wants Peace.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The following telegram was received at the Indian Bureau this morning:

FORT PECK, MONTANA, via Bismarck, Dakota, Oct. 13.

To the Commissioners of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C:

"Messengers from Sitting Bull's camp report that the entire hostile camp has crossed the Yellowstone river at the mouth of Big Horn, enroute for this place. They claim that they want peace. What course shall I pursue towards them?

(Signed) THOS. T. MITCHELL, Indian Agent."

After consultation with General Sherman instructions were telegraphed to Agent Mitchell as follows:

"Inform Sitting Bull that the only condition of peace is his surrender, when he will be treated as a prisoner of war. Issue no rations except after such surrender. When fully satisfied that the Indians can be held at the agency, make every preparation to defend the agency stores and property. The military will co-operate as fast as possible. (Signed,)

S. A. GALPIN, Acting Commissioner."

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Invasion of South Carolina--More Troops.

[Special to the News.]

GREENSBORO, Oct. 21, 1876.

Two hundred United States soldiers en route to Columbia, S. C., passed through this place to-night, and two hundred more will pass through to-morrow. C.

THE EASTERN COMPLICATION.

Nothing Definite Yet--The Old Rehash of English Papers.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—The National Zeitung states that Germany has defined her position upon the armistice question as follows:

She is indifferent whether an armistice of six weeks or six months is granted, therefore her interposition, with the object of bringing about an understanding between the powers on this particular question, can avail little. But on the other hand, Germany never fails to recognize that the object to be arrived at is the restoration of an understanding between the powers, with the view of procuring a durable peace.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A Reuter dispatch from Ragusa says that Medem has capitulated to the Montenegrin, who hold the Turkish garrison of four hundred men as prisoners of war. The Montenegrins have also taken the guns and ammunition of the Turks.

A Reuter dispatch from Constantinople says that the ambassadors of the powers met yesterday at the residence of General Ignatieff, the Russian ambassador. It is believed that they agreed upon a common action for procuring an understanding with the Porte regarding an armistice and conditions of peace.

A Berlin dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette says, that a report is current here that the powers have again collectively urged the Porte's unconditional acceptance of the English proposals.

A dispatch to the Reuter's agency from Vienna says, that Russia has presented to the Porte an ultimatum embracing, in substance, the following points: First, a six weeks' armistice unconditionally. Second, administrative autonomy for Bulgaria, Bosnia and Herzegovina. Third, the execution of reforms under the supervision of commissioners named by the great powers, and to be protected by an armed foreign force.

To-day's dispatches necessitates a serious modification of previous views in regard to the Eastern question. By a confession of the Times' Vienna correspondent he was mistaken about the powers which had delayed their acceptance of the six months armistice. Neither Austria, France, nor Italy had notified the Porte of their admission to that proposal, though none had objected to it. England alone, therefore, took formal action in its favor. The effect of this is that all the powers, except England, remain in a position to urge the Porte to concede to the Russians demand. On the other hand, it seems certain that Russia has not the support of Germany or Austria in the contemplated movement against Bulgaria. Announcement that the Czarewitch will visit the courts at Vienna, Berlin and London seems to indicate that Russia is hesitating to act separately.

Tweed---Personal---The Southern Claims Awards.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—On Tweeds arrival he will be delivered to the Sheriff of New York. In the meantime he will not be allowed communication with anyone.

Chandler and Tyner have returned. The Secretary of War has commenced signing the awards of the Southern Claims Commission. The progress is not rapid, some two hundred have been signed.

A Heavy Gale on the South Atlantic Coast.

KEY WEST, Oct. 20.—The gale which set in yesterday, broke at 11 o'clock last night. The wind attained a velocity of 90 miles an hour. Nothing can be seen this morning of the steam tug "Godfrey Keber" from Philadelphia for Galveston, before reported ashore. The weather is hazy. The steamer "City of Houston," from New York for Galveston, is ashore and half out of water at Bocaidica. She struck last night, and will probably come off after lightening. All on board saved. Mr. Alburg, a passenger, died last night.

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—A fearful hurricane prevailed here all last night. The telegraphic communication throughout the whole Island is interrupted. The lines connecting with the cable are down, but will be repaired immediately if the weather allows. The barometer is still very low. There are signs of another hurricane. The wind varies from northeast by east to northeast. None of the American vessels in the harbor have suffered thus far.

In the city several buildings were damaged. Many trees in the public park were blown down. One of the walls and the roof of the new theatre of Paynel, now constructing, were destroyed.

Probabilities.

For the South Atlantic States rising, followed by a falling barometer. Northwest winds shifting to southwest or southeast. Warm and clear, or partly cloudy weather, will prevail.

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY CURE FOR SCROFULA.

Facts are Stubborn Things.

A Few Proofs that Mrs. J. A. Person, Franklinton, N. C., Possess an Infallible Cure for Scrofula in All Its Forms.

THREE CHILDREN IN ONE FAMILY PERFECTLY CURED.

CASTALIA, N. C., Feb. 20th, 1875,

MRS. JOE PERSON—DEAR MADAME: Your letter has been received and on account of being absent from home for a week or two have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is in my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy and in less than three weeks, they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure to call on me.

Yours truly, WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"IT WILL CURE YOU IF YOU GIVE IT A FAIR TEST."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs Joe Person's Remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute, I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's Remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low-spiritedness fled before the Remedy, and I now enjoy splendid health, and am in good spirits. The Remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic, it will heal the most stubbon sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken sometime after the sore is healed to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy, and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you, if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it, and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.

I am, respectfully, JAS. A. MORRIS.

KITTRELLS, N. C, Feb. 17, 1876.

FRANKLINTON, N. C.

This is to certify I am intimately acquainted with Mrs. Joe Person, and from the facts before me of the remarkable cures she has made of Scrofula, I believe her medicine will do all she claims for it. And I take pleasure in recommending it to all persons suffering with Scrofula. This the 28th day of February, 1876

J. W. WELLONS, A Minister of the Christian Church.

The statements mentioned in the pieces, above, in regard to the curative power of the remedy in my possession are substantially correct, I have been trying it with unparalleled success for the last ten years and I do not hesitate to pronounce it an infallible, speedy and permanent cure for Scrofula; in its worst forms, no matter of how long standing the disease, nor whether hereditary or contracted.

Persons desiring treatment will make an engagement before coming, as I am only prepared to accommodate a limited number at one time. Other certificates will be shown applicants. For further information apply to MRS. JOE PERSON, sel2 w4t. Franklinton, N. C.
